A detachment of this regiment was sent to the Plains under Colonel Samuel Walker, where it performed post and escort duty.

The Sixteenth contained many veterans and was composed of as good material as any Kansas regiment. It was unfortunate in not having an opportunity to show its fighting qualities.

The Valley Falls New Era
Saturday
December 22, 1900

Some Early History.

Register Report for Jonas Dodge Jr.

Generation 2 (con't)

The following bit of history concerning Valley Falls was published in the Topeka Capital Tuesday. How near it come to being true, the oldest inhabitants will have to say:

"S.H. Dodge of the Beloit Gazette was in Topeka yesterday on his way to attend a meeting of the Board of Regents of the State Normal school at Emporia, and in talking about Kansas matters in general, the town of Valley Falls was mentioned. ' There is a town that had a harder time getting on the map as it is now than some of the younger Kansans may imagine,' remarked Dodge, who lit in this section of the country just about the time the crust of the earth had cooled sufficiently to enable a person to walk on it without discomfort.

"Originally the town was known as Grasshopper Falls, and all the oldtimes think of it as Grasshopper Falls yet. It was considered a good enough name for the town, to start on, but after awhile people commenced to kick on it. They were afraid it would be taken to mean that it was headquarters for grasshoppers. So in 1863 Azel W. Spaulding got a bill through the Legislature by which the name of the town was changed to Sautrell Falls. This was not so much of a change as it appears to be on the face of it, as it was merely Grasshopper rendered in the French fashion. But the new name did not suit, and at the next session of the Legislature the old name was fastened on the town again. The people worried along for sometime, but again the ancient kick came up as fresh as ever, and in ' 75 Grasshopper Falls was made Valley Falls, and it appears now that the people are satisfied."

"Del Valentin supplements the story told by S.H. Dodge concerning the name changing undergone by the present city of Valley Falls, by giving the cause which led to doing away with the name Sautrell Falls. It will be remembered that the name was changed from Grasshopper Falls to Sautrell because the first name seemed to carry a stigma that the people of the town did not wish to stand for. It was then that Sautrell was substituted for Grasshopper, being the French equivalent. And immediately certain of the unregenerate of that day, with malice aforethought, and with the deliberate intention of making life a burden for the people of the town commenced referring to it as 'Sowtail' Falls. The name took like wildfire. It was picked up with avidity by the papers, and pushed along by the people. No one ever heard of Sautrell Falls. It was Sowtail Falls all along the line, from Dan to Beersheba, and then some. It was too much for the proud spirit and the esthetic taste of the reside! nts of the town to be spoken of as living in Sowtail Falls, and they took advantage of the first opportunity to change back to the old name. When the matter came up in the Legislature some ridiculous speeches were made, in which Sowtail was worked for all it was worth, but there was not difficulty in passing the measure to relieve the citizens of the town from the trouble which was slowly but surely turning their milk of human kindness into clabber."

Notes for Joseph B Dodge:

General Notes:

Death: Jul. 7, 1891 Warsaw Kosciusko County Indiana, USA Col. Joseph B. Dodge was a Civil War Union Army Officer Colonel, with the 30th Indiana Volunteer Infantry. He was the leading spirit in the recruiting of Company B and Company I, both for the 13th Indiana Volunteer Infantry. He was elected to the position of captain of Company B. Upon the occasion of the organization of the regiment he was surprised to receive a commission as lieutenant-colonel and on October 5, 1861, he left with his regiment for the front. In April, 1862 he was promoted to the position of colonel of the regiment the former colonel having died of wounds received at the Battle of Shiloh on the 7th of that month. The ensuing fall he was placed in command of the Second Brigade, Second Division, Twentieth Army Corps, which he retained until the consolidation of the Twentieth and Twenty-first Corps, after the Battle of Chickamauga. In December, 1863, he was ordered to Nashville, Tenn., where he remained as president of the court-martial for the district of Tennessee until August, 1864. He then rejoined his old regiment in the Atlanta campaign, remaining with it until the organization was mustered out of service, September 20, 1864. He was never severely wounded, although he had seven different horses shot from under him. He was captured once, during a severe night battle, but while being taken to the confederate lines he escaped by a ruse and his two captors were taken prisoners instead by the union forces. He took such an active part in recruiting and organizing the company was quite prominent in political affairs in Kosciusko County and in the state. He filled many important county offices; that of County Treasurer about four years. On his return from the trip, he took to Harpers Ferry with the company he recruited another company which was assigned to the 30th Regiment, he going with it as Captain. On the organization of the regiment, he became Lieutenant Colonel and when Col. Bass was killed in action, he was promoted to Colonel and led the Regiment through many bloody battles. Rev. A. Laing, of Joliet, Illinois who was a member of the 30th Regiment says, "I do not hesitate to say of Col. Dodge that he was the coolest man under fire that I ever saw. His cheek did not flame with excitement nor blanch with fear in deadly conflict. His voice had the same calm tone, his step, the same measured tread, amid the iron hail and thunder of artillery as it had at the quiet drill in camp." Colonel Joseph B. Dodge died at his home.

Col Joseph B Dodge Joseph B. Dodge is found in the 1850 US Census in Warsaw, Kosciusko County, Indiana as a school teacher. He married Lydia L. Cook on 6 October 1852 in Kosciusko County, Indiana. Census records show Lydia was born about 1831 in Ohio. They had two daughters, Helen E., born about 1853 in Indiana and Cora L., born about 1855 in Indiana (all per 1860 Census in Wayne, Koscuisko County, Indiana). In the 1870 Census in Warsaw, Koscuisko County, Indiana is the family with a woman named Elizabeth Tibbets living next door (Carriota Tibbets was Joseph's mother's maiden name). In the 1880 Census Elizabeth Tibbets is living with the family and is listed as the sister to Joseph Dodge. 1. Family Search shows a Joseph B. Dodge born 3 June 1830 in Starkey, Yates County, New York. His father is listed as Jonas Dodge. 2. 1830 US Census in Starkey, Yates County, New York shows a Jonas Dodge with a son of the right age as Joseph. 3. Jonas Dodge is Jonas Dodge, Jr., born 11 August 1806 in Smithfield, New York - and he married Carriota Tibbets. Jonas and Carriota had a daughter named Carriota E. and I believe the E. stand for Elizabeth and that she is the Elizabeth Tibbets mentioned in the 1880 census - I believe she married a cousin named Tibbets. This is not conclusive by a long shot, but we think a very good contender for belonging to the John Branch.

This researcher remembers that Jeanne and Garland were married on a boat under the full moon sailing on the Persian Gulf, however the Obituary in the Arkansas City Traveler says that they were married in 1960 in Cairo Egypt. They made their home in Saudia Arabia, Lybia and other cities around the world as employees of ARAMCO Oil Company. Upon retirement they moved to Lake Chapala, Mexico where they were divorced. Jeanne moved back to Arkansas City to be near the family about 1996. She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church.

- 63 Access Genealogy, extracted from A Standard History of Kansas and Kansans Fockele, Frank <http://www.accessgenealogy.com/scripts/data/database.cgi?file=Data&report=SingleArticle&ArticleID=0023040>. It was in 1871 that Mr. Fockele identified himself with Coffey County and for a few years taught in the English schools here. In 1881 he bought the Reporter at Le Roy, and had continued the ownership of that old and influential journal to the present time, though since 1908 the editorial responsibilities have been handled by his son Glick. Thirty-six years of continuous ownership and management of a paper in Kansas almost constitutes a record, and Mr. Fockele is assuredly the veteran and pioneer newspaper man of Coffey County at least. The Reporter had always been an influential paper and is democratic in politics. It was founded in 1879 by S. H. Dodge, and was acquired about two years later by Mr. Fockele. It is the only paper in the town and had absorbed several other local journals, including the Comment and the Neosho Valley Blade.
