

OBITUARIES AND DEATH NOTICES
NASHUA REPORTER, OCTOBER - DECEMBER 1904

22 December 1904

Death of a Former Nashua Boy-- George Herbert Dodge, the second oldest son of Mrs. Catherine Dodge, of Charles City, died at Independence Sunday night, at 9 o'clock, of pneumonia. Herbert was born on the old Henry Dodge homestead, 2 1/2 miles west of Nashua, Oct. 5, 1877, and lived there until about ten years ago, when with his parents he moved to Floyd, Iowa. He attended the rural school near the home of his birth, and the High School at Floyd. A sad affliction befell him early in life, for from the time he was three years old he has been a great sufferer of epilepsy. About a week ago he contracted pneumonia and when the crisis came he was unable to pass it, and worn out with years of suffering he closed his weary eyes upon the scenes of earth and peacefully passed to rest. The deceased grew to manhood in Nashua and will be remembered by our people as one of its best young men, one who commanded the highest regard and good will of all those with whom he came in contact. He leaves to mourn his death a devoted mother, Mrs. Catherine Dodge, of Charles City, and three brothers, Ed. of Charles City, Horace of Alden, and Loyal, of Osage. Tuesday morning, the remains were laid to rest in the family burial lot in Greenwood cemetery, by the side of his father, who preceded Herbert to their Heavenly home about eight years ago. A prayer was offered at the grave by Rev. Walter Piper.
