

The testimony of Nathaniel Fairfield of Wenham testifieth & saith that I have Known a way that was formerly given by Mr Richard Dodge of Wenham to his Son William Dodge of said Wenham throw the said Richards Land to a piece of Land of about twenty acers given to the said William which twenty acers was apart of a track of Land Called the hundred acers & I this Deponant have----Known the said William & his Sons to improve said way for a bout Sixty years Last past through – a pasture called the Cow pasture as it now goweth (crossed through - & never had that any person pretended to stop said way) & so throu a gate that Leads out of said Cow pasture into the hundred acers So called which was the said Richards Land & To all the way from said gate to the said twenty acers & I never heard of any persons pretending to Stop said way til this time

Wenham September 30:1767

Nathaniel Fairfield

Wenham September the 30 - 1767

Then the above named Nathaniel Fairfield was sworn to the above deposition he being Eighty fore years of age and could not com to cort he was sworn Before me –
Josiah Fairfield Justis of peace